An Essential Service for Students

As an eligible student, you're automatically covered by one of the most important services on campus: the GSS Comprehensive Care Graduate Benefit Plan. It provides many benefits not covered by provincial health-care programs.

Eligible students include:

- Students enrolled in a graduate program at SFU in September or January, including off-campus, part-time, and international students
- Great Northern Way Campus students

Certain exceptions exist. Please check your student account to confirm if you've been charged the Plan fees.
